OWASIPPE LODGE-HOME OF THE 1981 SECTION 3-A

!!! ORDEAL COMPETITION CHAMPS !!!

JAMES CHANDLER HONORED

James Chandler was awarded the Distinguished Service Award by the Order of the Arrow, Boy Scouts of America at the 1981 National Conference in Austin Texas. While receiving national distinction, Chandler was cited for his 20 years of service at the regional and national levels of the Order of the Arrow.

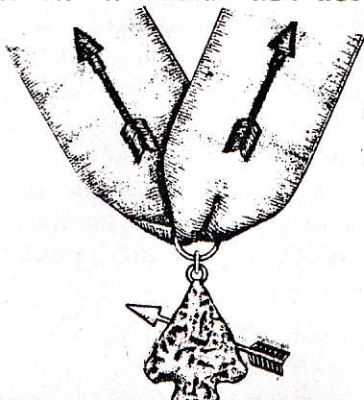

The Distinguished Service Award is presented to select Arrowman who have shown exceptional dedication and service over an extended period of time at the section, area, region, or national level. Since this award's inception in 1940, 314 have been presented.

Chandler became involved actively in the Order of the Arrow nationally when he attended his first conference in 1961. For the next five conferences he served on the advisory leadership staff. From 1971-72, he was the professional advisor to the Area-7-1. Since 1974 he has served as the professional advisor for Section 3-A.

Chandler has been a professional Scouter since 1968, where he began his career in Northeast Illinois Council, B.S.A. In 1977, he joined the Chicago Area Council staff as Director of Camping.

As, Director, his job is to oversee the promotion program, and maintenance of the council's camps: OSR, Hoover, Ft. Dearborn & Kiwanis, he is also professional advisor of Owasippe Lodge. He coordinates the construction on and renovation of camp properties as part of the council's camp development campaign. He holds a Master of Arts degree in education from Michigan State University.

Congratulations on an award much deserved.

WHAT IS AN ARROWMAN?

An Arrowman is ignorant and has a distorted sense of value. He is so ignorant that he doesn't know something is impossible and he goes ahead and does it. He is so backward that he still believes in the ideas that made his country great. He denies the proposition that it is not what you know, but whom you know that counts and things that success to the man who can deliver the goods. He is so mixed up that he thinks it is better to be right than rich, and that he can rise highest by staying on the level. He thinks it is better to be free than secure and he looks for a helping hand at the end of his right arm.

An Arrowman is so inexperienced that he can't solve sticky problems by sitting in an air-conditioned office and drifting off into the cool stratosphere of abstract thought. He has to put his shoulder to the wheel and his hand in God's hand, and pray like a lost sinner, while he totes the barges and lifts the bales.

You can't recognize an Arrowman just by looking at him. To a lost, bewildered Tenderfoot at camp, he looks like the good samaritan and his father confessor. To the harassed, overworked scout executive the Arrowman is ever eager to take on the jobs no one else had the time for, he looks like the Scout Oath and Law personified. To a worried camp administrator he is an army of help or a leader unafraid to soil his hands with the clean dirt of hard work.

And even if you know an Arrowman today, you know him tomorrow. Today, to stay in school, he may be an obscure part-time clerk; but after a while as an Arrowman, after becoming aware of getting into the bloodstreams of civic affairs, he'll graduate and soon will be hiring and firing clerks by the dozens. But meanwhile he'll spend time on committees, or running around on cold nights working on some kind of project. And he'll start getting public recognition that is not actively sought. People he does not know from Adam will call him by name on the street; and he'll be on speaking terms with hundreds he never knew before, his teachers and his boss will begin to realize what a valuable person he is;

and his fellow citizens and classmates will be turning to him for leadership. And he'll be lucky if his best girl thinks enough of him (or his wife loves him enough) not to gripe like the dickens because he doesn't spend more time with her.

But his real reward will be the comfortable realization that he is doing things that build communities and states and nations. He can say with solemn pride that while others stayed in the background, he came forward; and while others followed the crowd, he followed his conscience; and when some merely moaned, "We have a problem, what will we do?" he was ready to step in. While others pointed at the dirt, he swang the broom.

LOWER LAKE MEDLY

CAMP WEST RALLY SONG

And then those Camp West Boys will fall in line
And they will do their stuff another time.
For the standards that we love so well,
Our Scouting troops will yell, yell, yell.
And then we'll fight, fight, fight, with all our might,
For our reputation day and night.
And we will always do our very best, with success,
For old Camp West.....It's the best - Hey!

CAMP BEARD VICTORY SONG

Give a cheer for dear old Beard!
Shout 'til the rafters ring.
Stand and give a cheer once again,
Let every loyal Beard man sing - Hail Beard!
Cheer for all the happy hours,
Cheer for the carefree days.
Cheer for all the troops in camp.
The camp that's in our hearts always.

CAMP BEARD VICTORY SONG (cont'd)

Stuart will always be our home.
And when our camping days have ceased to be,
We'll praise Owasippe - Owasippe - Hey!

BEMO, BEMO, BEMO. STUART HAD IT TOGETHER!

CAMP BLACKHAWK FIGHT SONG

It's a great gang that goes to Blackhawk - GO!
It's a great gang to know.
Always full of pep and ginger,
and the watchword is let's go - LET GO!
Always on the level,
Always on the square
It's a great, great gang that goes to Blackhawk - GO!
And my heart's right there.

REPEAT WITH CLAPPING

BLACKHAWK....GO! BLACKHAWK....GO! BLACKHAWK....GO!

CAMP ROBERT CROWN

CHORUS:

Oh we are proud! (repeat)

Oh we are proud! (repeat)

*Oh we are proud to be part of Robert Crown - Of the great
camp Robert Crown;*

*Group I: Crown, Crown, Crown, Crown,
We are proud to be part of Robert Crown.*

*Group II: Staffmen and Scouts will hail to the shouts.
We are proud to be part of Robert Crown.*

*One day we built a great camp,
We called it Robert Crown;*

*And when we put it up;
No one could bring it down.*

Oh the rain will rain, the sun will shine, and summer days will pass and we'll still call, the Great Camp Robert Crown.

Chorus:

*The day that the Scouts come, we treat them just like kings;
We fill them up with bug juice and teach them scouting things.*

Oh the staff will sing, the Scouts will shout as we all cry out.

And we hail to the great camp Robert Crown.

Chorus:

*Scouts come to Owasippe, they camp here year to year;
But those at Robert Crown are the finest we have here.*

*Oh the rain will rain, the sun will shine,
and summer days will pass,
And we'll still call that great camp Robert Crown.*

Chorus:

THE SAUGER LAKE CAMP SONG (Tune: "OVER THERE")

Sauger Lake, Sauger Lake
Spread the word of the great Sauger Lake
For the staff is steady, The Scouts are ready
To share fun and friendship through the camp.
Over all, over all
Our pride will shine over all
Our camp is best, better than the rest
As part of it we stand very tall
Sauger Lake, Sauger Lake
Shout out for our great Sauger Lake
It's really clear that we are here
Sauger Lake is over, over, over all

Sauger Lake -- over all; Sauger Lake --
Over all' Sauger Lake -- over all.

THE OWASIPPE HYMN

All the wealth of Earth and Heaven
Bless thy woods and dales,

Over all thy lakes and forests
Happy youth prevails.

So may Scouting's bond of friendship
Seal our loyalty,

To the camps so dear to memory.
Hail Owasippe!
